Mike Bright retires from KDOT

Mike Bright is retiring from the Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT) following 28 years of service to the agency.

Bright began his career in 1993 at the Iola construction office. In 2002 he was promoted to the position of District Four Office Coordinator at the KDOT district office in Chanute, where he managed project documentation and all district highway permits.

His plans for retirement include motorcycle rides, camping and travel. Bright and his wife, Becky, live in Petrolia. The couple has two sons, five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.
