Annual traffic safety conference scheduled for April 18-20 in Topeka

The 22nd Annual Traffic Safety Conference will be April 18-20 in Topeka.

The annual gathering, which will be at Capitol Plaza Hotel and Convention Center, will include nationally-prominent speakers and breakout sessions on crash injury control, current trends in law enforcement, contemporary youth issues and roadway safety. Among those who routinely participate in the conference are law enforcement officers, judges, government officials, educators, counselors, engineers, emergency medical personnel, school bus drivers, teen drivers, safety advocates and traffic safety special interest groups.

At the final day luncheon, the People Saving People Awards will be presented. Attendees can receive up to 9.5 contact hour of instruction.

The annual safety conference is sponsored by the Kansas Department of Transportation and University of Kansas Continuing Education with funding from the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration.

To register and learn more about the conference, visit the KU Professional and Continuing Education website at <http://kupce.ku.edu/transportation-safety>.
