Kramer retires from KDOT

Gary Kramer, Seneca Subarea Supervisor for the Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT), is retiring on Dec. 15 after 33 years of service to the state of Kansas.

Kramer started at KDOT in 1985 as an Equipment Operator II in the Seneca Subarea office. He has spent his entire KDOT career working in Seneca. He was named the Subarea Supervisor in 2015. Kramer is responsible for maintenance activities and snow removal along Kansas highways and right-of-way in Nemaha and part of Brown and Marshall counties.

Kramer is a member of the Knights of Columbus and is active in the St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. He plans to farm, play golf and spend time with his family during his retirement. He and his wife, Janel, have three children, Melissa (son-in-law Anthony), Katie and Abbey, and one grandchild, Jacob. They reside in Seneca.
