Bradbury celebrates 30 years of service at KDOT

Roberta Bradbury, Traffic Safety Accountant in the Bureau of Transportation Safety & Technology, has achieved a career milestone and is celebrating 30 years of valued service to the State of Kansas.

Bradbury began at the Topeka State Hospital in 1988 as a Secretary, then went to the Topeka Correctional Facility in 1992 as a Correctional Officer. She started at the Kansas Department of Transportation in 1998 and has service in several bureaus throughout her career.

She has served in her current position since 2011. Bradbury manages more than 200 National Highway Traffic Safety Administration grants focused on improving driver behavior. In 2008, she became a Certified Public Manager.

Bradbury has one daughter, Andrea, and resides in Perry.
