King celebrates 30 years of service at KDOT

Kathy King, Engineering Technician Specialist in the Bureau of Construction and Materials, has achieved a career milestone and is celebrating 30 years of valued service to the State of Kansas.

King began at the Kansas Department of Revenue, serving at that agency for several years. In 1996, she joined the Kansas Department of Transportation in the Office of Transportation Information. Through the years she has received several promotions in the bureaus of Construction and Maintenance, Inspector General, Transportation Planning and Bridge Design.

She is currently in the Estimating and Letting unit where she has worked for the past two years as an Estimator on all construction projects that are included in KDOT's monthly bid letting.

King and her husband, Brad, have two children and reside in Topeka.
