K-9

EXPECT DELAYS! 24/7 ROADWAY CLOSURE: All lanes of K-9 in the city of Frankfort (Marshall County) will REMAIN CLOSED as cleanup work is underway from yesterday's Union Pacific coal train derailment in the city of Frankfort that occurred around 9:00 a.m. on Monday, June 2. K-9 will REMAIN CLOSED between the U.S. 77 junction at Blue Rapids to the K-99 junction in Frankfort. A total of twelve coal cars derailed with heavy damage sustained to the tracks themselves. (See map below)

At this point in time it is estimated that K-9 is tentatively scheduled to reopen sometime this Sunday, June 8, weather permitting.

Drivers should expect delays and must use alternate routes until further notice. We will let you know when K-9 is fully reopened to all traffic.
