KDOT to host Local Consult in Manhattan Oct. 3

Meeting will focus on transportation priorities in northeast Kansas

The Kansas Department of Transportation is hosting nine meetings in October as part of the Eisenhower Legacy Transportation Program (IKE) Local Consult process. KDOT holds Local Consult meetings every two years to discuss regional transportation project priorities with Kansans.

The first meeting will be in Manhattan and focus on transportation in northeast Kansas (KDOT District 1). It will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 3, from 9 a.m. to noon, at the Four Points by Sheraton in Manhattan.

Those who attend will have an opportunity to share their region's transportation priorities, hear about investments being made in transportation and learn about various grant funding programs available through KDOT. The meeting is open to the public.

This event in northeast Kansas is the first in a series of meetings being held across the state. These meetings are an important step in collecting public input for the IKE program – the state's current 10-year transportation improvement program.
