Reopened: Reno County section of K-14 is back open after pipeline work

A section of K-14 in Reno County reopened Wednesday afternoon (Aug. 12) after being closed for maintenance on the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline.

Before the reopening, traffic had been directed by a signed detour on other state highways.

The section of K-14 that had been directly affected by the closure was between Irish Creek Road and Arlington Road. Other portions of K-14 not directly affected by the work had remained open to local traffic.
