

En ROUTE TO KDOT

Thursday, April 14, 2022

National Work Zone Awareness Week increases safety awareness on highways

Kansans were encouraged to participate in Go Orange Day in Kansas to show appreciation for highway workers and their efforts. Pictured here is a KDOT crew from Gage. Click here to see all the photos.

Gov. Kelly announces $13.2M for public transit projects across Kansas

Last week, Gov. Laura Kelly announced 26 public transit projects across Kansas would receive $13.2 million in funding as part of the Access, Innovation, and Collaboration (AIC) Public Transit Program. Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Administrator Nuria Fernandez and Transportation Secretary Julie Lorenz spoke at the ribbon cutting event, and several officials helped cut the ribbon.

Kansas News

Bipartisan Infrastructure Law meetings take place across the Sunflower State. Click here to register to attend.

Work zone speeding: What Kansas troopers see, hear

National News

FHWA highlights Bipartisan Infrastructure Law safety efforts

