

En ROUTE TO KDOT

Wednesday, March 16, 2022

After several lives lost last weekend, Secretary Lorenz asks all to buckle up.

“ Last weekend was horrible for children on Kansas roads.

Please buckle up your children and yourself.

It can be the difference between life and death. ”

- Kansas Transportation Secretary
Julie Lorenz

Secretary Julie Lorenz spoke with KAKE News about the importance of every person in a vehicle wearing a seat belt.

Kansas News

Shawnee County Sheriff shares driving advice for young drivers.

First tornado intercept vehicle from “Storm Chasers” found in Kansas yard.

High Risk Rural Roads projects announced.

Kansas communities receive more than $6 million for improving rural road safety.

“ Our rural roads are an important component to the local and state economy. Programs like this ensure that commerce flows and Kansas families can travel the state safely.

-Governor Laura Kelly ”

National News

Goodbye cars, hello bicycles – Drivers look for alternative forms of transportation amid high gas prices.