

2015 Put the Brakes on Fatalities Day video contest winners!

Siera Hartwell, Lauren Gabriel, Justin Tumberlin and Nate Herries from the Video Production class at Eudora High School won first place. The class will receive their choice of an iPad mini, GoPro video camera or Apple Watch along with a $500 donation to the school.

Students from Wichita East High School's Film Studies class captured second place and Jalen Gifford, representing Dodge City High School, placed third. Each will receive one of the remaining prizes listed above.

A total of 170 entries from teens in 21 Kansas schools participated.